

THE FATHER OF LIGHTS

James 1: 16, 17

Spiritual death, along with every defilement and imperfection is the corrupt wage earned from below by every man born of Adam. Christ Jesus the Son of God, spiritual life, along with every grace is the good and perfect gift from God the Father of lights above (1 Corinthians 4:7). There is no varying, not even a shadow of turning with God. What God gives shall never be taken away. The manner in which God gives his gifts is the manner in which God continues to save unto final glory (Psalm 40: 5.)
